

A photograph of a long, straight dirt road stretching into the distance under a blue sky with scattered clouds. The road is flanked by dry, yellowish-brown brush and small shrubs. In the far distance, low mountains are visible on the horizon.

When we lose ourselves in others, that's when we find ourselves

When we lose ourselves in others, that's when we find ourselves

F Bb C F Bb C

My friend went on a journey and completely lost himself

F Bb C F Bb C

I went looking for my friend

And I found him, when I lost myself

F Bb C F Bb C

I found him! And I found myself!

When we lose ourselves in others, that's when we find ourselves

Something Wrong

words and music by Alan Sanderson

A7 D#5/A A7sus4 D
I haven't seen her for a while
A7 D#5/A A7sus4 D
I used to see her every day
A7 D#5/A A7sus4 D
And when I ask, "What has happened to her?"
A7 D#5/A G
I can't get anyone to say

[CHORUS]

C D G Em
Is there something wrong with Alyson?
C D G
Or is there something wrong with me?
C D G Em
Is there something wrong with Alyson?
C D G
Or is there something wrong with me?

A7 D#5/A A7sus4 D
And I was troubled at her leaving
A7 D#5/A A7sus4 D
I thought that I had caused her shame
A7 D#5/A A7sus4 D
And the way that people wouldn't speak about it ...
A7 D#5/A G
I would have taken all the blame

[REPEAT CHORUS]

C D
Did you know that I loved her?
C D
Did you know that I loved her?

with a quote adapted from "Improve the Shining Moments" by Robert Baird (1855-1916)

C Dm G C
When everything is said and done, what's there left to do?
C Dm G C
Can we turn the clock back and make everything new?

C Dm G C
When everything is lost, Can we find our way again?
C Dm G C
Can we turn back the pages, Or have we reached the end?

[BRIDGE]

Am G
Time flies away on wings of lightning
Am
We cannot call it back
G Am
We cannot call it back

[1st repeat only] Am F Am C Am F Am C

[REPEAT BRIDGE]

C F G
We might not have tomorrow
C F G
And we can't go back to yesterday
C F G
So we'll learn, we'll love, and we'll forgive
C F G
And we'll hold on to every hour that we have together
C F G
Because I know there's a bright day coming for you and me
C F G
And we'll hold on to every promise we have
